#458 Take my life and let it be

Benediction Rev. C. Laine Julian

I believe that God has called all of us into the ministry of His love. I am grateful for the wonderful people who have helped me along my journey. Thank you to Emily, Cindy, Howie, Chevy Chase Baptist Church, ABCLA, Allelous, and Fuller Seminary friends for your love and support to follow this calling God has placed in my life for the Gospel Ministry.

Ordination Vows

Rev. Sam Chetti: Laine, as a newly affirmed candidate for the Gospel ministry, do you pledge before this gathered congregation and all people of faith to follow in the way of our Lord Jesus Christ, proclaiming the Good News of God's reign and love for all humanity?

Ordinand: Yes, I so pledge.

Rev. Sam Chetti: Do you pledge to seek after goodness, to love the things worth loving, to approve of what is excellent, and to apply in your life the Word of Truth which is the Holy Bible?

Ordinand: Yes, I so pledge.

Rev. Sam Chetti: Do you pledge to seek avenues for service, to minister freely to those under your care, to proclaim the words of life to those in need and to demonstrate the meaning and significance of life in both word and deed?

Ordinand: Yes, I so pledge.

Rev. Sam Chetti: Do you pledge to support the ministry of others and to cooperate with those larger bodies of believers ministering to the global community, seeking to promote peace, righteousness and justice among all the peoples of the earth?

Ordinand: Yes, I so pledge.

Rev. Sam Chetti: Will you dedicate yourself to your family and personal spiritual growth, nourishing those aspects of life often stifled in professional roles?

Ordinand: Yes, I so dedicate myself.

Rev. Sam Chetti: Do you promise to cultivate a deep sense of Christian mission that will guide and sustain you amid hardship and disappointment and temper your success with humility?

Ordinand: Yes, I so promise.

Rev. Sam Chetti: May the grace of God empower you in the fulfillment of these commitments.
